Doc Kavanagh To Speak At Dinner on Saturday

Athletic Schedule Heavy For Saturday Afternoon

The weekend of May 2 is a big one at Cornell. Hundreds of high school and prep school seniors will be guests of the University, there will be many events scheduled, and Saturday afternoon in particular is heavily booked with athletics.

We are pleased to welcome the guests of Zeta Beta Tau, and we hope your visit is a pleasant and satisfactory one.

The weekend schedule goes something like this: Friday, registering begins, and at night is an Engineering show and exhibit. Saturday morning are campus tours beginning at Willard Straight Hall. Saturday afternoon are the following sporting events: 1. Baseball, two games with Yale, Hoy Field, 2:30; varsity and freshman lacrosse; varsity and freshman tennis; golf match; freshman track meet.

There will be a special dinner at the house at 6:30 with "Doc" Kavanagh as speaker. President Day will address a rally in Bailey Hall Saturday night.

Sunstein Plays Varsity Tennis; Kesten On Big Red Ball Team

Two members of Kappa are winning their varsity letters in Big Red sports this spring. Lee Sunstein '43 of Elkins Park, Pa., is number four man on the tennis team, and won his match handily against Penn State on the weekend of April 25. His doubles team was also successful.

Artie Kesten '44 has broken into the starting baseball lineup as a sophomore and is holding down the right field spot. The team got off to a bad pre-Ivy League season by losing six straight, but in the first league match they nosed out last year's champs from Princeton. Mose Quinn continues as coach.
